

Colonel (Dr.). PS Santosh.

- Educational qualifications: BSc., MBBS, MD (SPM), LDMC (Long Defence Management Course), MMS (College of Defence Management), PG Certification (Indian Institute of Management), Indore. Certified Internal auditor for Hospital laboratories and NABH.
- Experience:
  - Logged for more than 35 years of experience.
- Teaching and Training Experience:
  - Directing Staff of Officer's Training College, AMC Center and College. Faculty member of general management, administration and community medicine for medical officers and nursing officers of army, navy and airforce.
  - Senior registrar and officer commanding troops of a 500 bedded multispecialty base hospital.
  - Assistant professor of community medicine.
- Research Experience:
  - Research officer for a project entitled 'Motivation profile of army medical corps personnel.'
  - Dissertation prepared on 'Dynamics of Managerial Effectiveness'
  - Thesis on 'A prospective study of perinatal mortality and its relation with maternal nutrition.'
- Core Competencies:
  - Proficient in administration of different types of health care and other related organizations in various environments.
  - Extensive experience in administrative assignments, planning, budgeting, resource deployment, career development and training and accreditation process.
  - Can inculcate modern management techniques to achieve result oriented performance.
  - Wide experience in disaster management

Specific Corporate Training Topics:

1. Management of hospitals / health care organizations
2. Administrative and technical operations of health care organizations
3. Personnel management – Selection, training and appraisal
4. Quality control in patient care
5. Accreditation process for hospitals
6. Disaster management, management of mass casualties.