

NAVANEETH KRISHNAN B

A Management Graduate and ISO QMS professional with more than 18 years of experience in implementing and maintaining ISO in various organizations. Started his career as a marketing professional and later focused to quality management system with the organizations he served. He had vast experience in developing Manuals, Standard Operating Procedures and other Office Manuals as per ISO/OHSAS and company requirements.

Having experience as ISO Administrator with a manufacturing company in Saudi Arabia and ISO MR with a leading engineering contracting company in India, where I implemented and maintain the quality management system as per ISO requirements, trained all staffs for maintaining the QMS through effective quality audits and Kaizen for better and continuous improvement.

An empanelled ISO Lead Auditor and Trainer, conducted ISO Certification and Training for 100+ companies, enabled the corporations and its employees to achieve their objectives.